The CC-CS Difference

Welcome to customized travel and study with the Center for Cross-Cultural Study! CC-CS has provided unique learning experiences for students and travelers alike since 1969. We welcome you to explore the CC-CS difference!

- Nearly 40 years of quality academic programming
- Program locations in Spain, Cuba, and Argentina
- Flexible and focused custom programs, designed according to your group's objectives
- Program models appropriate for all ages and backgrounds

Custom Design

As a pioneer in cross-cultural study abroad, CC-CS knows what it takes to make your experience rewarding. We have developed a reputation for the superior quality and value of our programs, and are known for our commitment to students' intellectual, cultural, and personal growth. We look forward to bringing this commitment to life for you.

University Academic Programs

Our experience in designing Spanish language and culture curriculum for CC-CS students in Spain, Cuba, and Argentina allows us to create both Short Term and Full Term university programs. We offer both Integrated and Independent Program designs, depending on the program's objectives. Credits and transcripts are determined by institutional need, based on contact hours and consultation between your institution and CC-CS.

Please visit ccs.com/university for more information.

High School Academic Programs

CC-CS offers high school students the unique opportunity to engage in the Spanish culture and language while obtaining college credit. From summer programs to gap year semester/academic year experiences, CC-CS encourages students to join us by way of independent study, or as part of a high school custom program.

Sample Academic Programs

- The Spanish Business Environment
- Mosaic: Jews, Muslims, and the Spanish Experience
- The History and Culture of Argentina
- Spanish Language and Culture Survey

"CC-CS is simply unmatched in its devotion to students and its flawless professionalism. This program far surpasses any other I have toured, in terms of staff preparedness and dedication. Students going abroad with CC-CS will undoubtedly be well prepared in advance and well cared for during the program."

—Dr. Deanna Mihaly, Eastern Michigan University, MI
