

Choose your ideal short-term study abroad experience from our three unique program locations:

Seville, Spain

Seville, a beautiful and ancient city, embodies traditional Andalusian culture, from its orange trees and winding streets to flamenco and bullfighting. Students attend courses at the Center's historic, downtown mansion.

- Two 3½-week terms; 4–8 college-level credits
- Elementary to advanced language levels
- Wide variety of course offerings, including professional development courses
- Homestays with local families

Alicante, Spain

Alicante, the jewel of the Costa Blanca, boasts a Mediterranean coastal climate and lifestyle. A rich history of sea merchants and conquerors has shaped this vibrant and modern city's unique Spanish character.

- Two 4-week terms; 4–10 college-level credits
- Elementary to advanced language levels
- Complementary 1-credit content courses
- Spanish courses taken alongside other international students at Universidad de Alicante
- Homestays with local families

Córdoba, Argentina

The vibrant and welcoming city of Córdoba is known as a major center of arts and learning in Argentina. The city is located beside the Sierra Chica mountains, a region renowned for its outdoor activities and sociable culture.

- One 4-week term; 4 college-level credits
- Upper intermediate to advanced language levels
- Spanish courses taken alongside other international students at Universidad Nacional de Córdoba
- Homestays with local families
